MINUTES

Lynchbnrg, Va., July 24, 1929, 11 A. M.

The Otter River Baptist Sunday School Convention convened in its 38th annual session with the Mt. Zion Baptist Sunday School, the President, Rev. J. A. Shelton, preiding; Supts. J. H. Cunningham, Jas. H. Martin and Miss G. C. Martin in the stand. Bro. Martin lined hymn 375, "Oh, For a Closer Walk with God," etc. Sister Martin read from 107th division of the Psalms through the 10th verse. Prayer was offered by Supt. Cunningham. Singing by the Convention. The Secretary then read the program proposed by the President which was afterward adopted.

The President then called for the Welcome Address and Mr. W. T. Johnson ascended the stand and delivered a thoughtful, schollarly and most excellent address. This address was accepted by the Convention with the satisfaction that we were at home. The address was responded to by T. M. McClendon in a manner that did credit to himself and also to the Convention.

The following committees were appointed: Enrollment—Supt. Silas Herndon, Mrs. W. A. Byrd, Mrs. Julia White and Mrs. Bessie Jeffries.

New Bodies—Supts. Burl Anderson, D. F. Payne and Mrs. Cornelia White.

Reading Letters—Mrs. A. B. Martin, Mrs. L. V. Hogue and Mrs. Hattie Harvey.

The President then called for Annual and Life Members and the names of the persons who responded will be found upon another page of these minutes.

Continue the appointment of Committees:

Education—Rev. A. J. Thompson, Rev. J. B. Wade, Supt. A. W. Martin, Supt. D. Wheaton, Mrs. Janie Moorman, Supt. D. F. Payne and T. W. Tweedy.

Then Rev. J. L. McDaniel being absent the chair appointed Rev. A. J. Thompson to preach. Rev. Thompson ascended the stand accompanied by Rev. F. G. Waller. Singing by the Convention, "I Have a Savior, He's Pleading in Glory," etc. Rev. Thompson announced as a text Eph. 3:9, "We Are Co-laborers Together with God." He preached a spiritual sermon that inspired the Convention in a manner that we will not soon forget. Prayer was offered by Rev. F. G. Waller. The chair then appointed Deas. Burl Anderson and D. F. Payne to lift a collection. They took up $6.00.

The following visitors were then introduced: Mrs. Whitney Gibson, Rev. J. D. Friend, Mrs. J. D. Friend, Rev. J. E. Carter. Then Rev. Carter gave a short but encouraging talk relative to the work of the Convention, after which benediction was given by Rev. J. B. Wade.

First Day, Afternoon Session, 3 o'clock P. M.

Vice President D. W. Gibson in the chair; Rev. J. B. Wade and Supt. Silas Herndon in the stand. Bro. Herndon sang 23. Bro. Wade read from the 13th chapter of 1st Cor. Prayer was offered by Bro. Herndon. Singing by the Convention. Then the President occupied the stand and ing by the Convention. Then the Vice President occupied the stand and delivered a forceful, thoughtful and instructive address. Emphasizing especially the cause of the present trend of the age. Some of the conclusions reached were: That the people do not seem to want to know about God. He recommended that all schools of the Convention would organize Bible circle classes, and again that we would show greater interest for the Virginia Seminary and College, where we can direct the teaching of our boys and girls. Then by motion the address was referred to a committee, viz., Rev. T. M. McClendon, Rev. J. L. McDaniel, D. D., and Supt. E. M. Payne. We then had the report of the Committee on Permanent Organization. They recommended the continuance in office of the present staff of officers for the next twelve months. The recommendation was adopted and Rev. McClendon was appointed to install the officers, which he did with ability and an honor to the Convention.

Then the chair called for the subject, "Work Essential to Faith," to be discussed by Mr. Clarence Morris who showed much forethought and fitness in handling the subject. The address was spoken to by Supt. Burl Anderson, Mrs. Bettie Elliotte and Dea. J. H. Martin.

The Committee on New Schools made report as follows: We, your Committee on New Schools, beg leave to offer the following report: We find two new schools asking admission into our body, viz., the New Vine Sunday School and Free Spring Sunday School, and we hereby recommend their reception into this body. Committee, Burl Anderson, D. F. Payne and Mrs. Cornelia White. The report was adopted and the hand of fellowship was extended to the delegates by Supt. P. W. Callaham.

The chair then appointed Supt. W. J. Morton and Supt. W. H. Burton to lift a collection. They lifted $2.77. Benediction was given by Rev. J. L. McDaniel, D. D.

First Day, Evening Session, 8 o'clock P. M.

The President, Rev. J. A. Shelton, in the chair; Rev. David Pannill, Supt. Silas Herndon and Mrs. L. L. Singleton in the stand. Bro. Herndon sang 125, "Alas, and Did My Savior Bleed," etc., Mrs. Singleton read from Deut. 5th chapter through the 10th verse. Prayer was offered by Rev. Pannill. Singing by the Convention. The time having arrived for preaching and Rev. Brontley and his alternate both being absent, the chair asked Rev. Brooks to preach at this time. Rev. Brooks ascended the stand in company with Rev. T. M. McClendon and Rev. F. G. Waller. Singing by the Convention. Prayer was offered by Rev. Waller. Rev. Brooks announced as a text Isaiah 9:6, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon His shoulders, and His name shall be called Wonderful Counsellor, the Almighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." The sermon was delivered with much power and inspiration. Miss L. S. Singleton sang a beautiful solo which was greatly enjoyed by the Convention.

The chair then appointed Rev. F. A. Dain and Dea. Limas Harvey to lift a collection. They took up $3.00. The chair appointed the following Committee on Fees: Rev. J. L. McDaniel, D. D., Rev. J. B. Shelton, D. D., Dea. D. W. Gibson and Supt. A. W. Martin and Supt. Burl Anderson.

Resolutions—Rev. J. B. Elliotte, Dea. J. H. Martin and Rev. F. Shelton. After listening to a statement by Dea. D. F. Payne from Rev. C. A. Organ, benediction was given by Rev. J. B. Wade.

Second Day, Morning Session, 9:20 A. M.

The Vice Pres. D. W. Gibson in the chair; Supt. E. M. Payne, Mrs. Julia White, Miss Dala Nowlin in the stand. Sister White sang "My Hope is Built on Nothing Less than Jesus' Blood and Righteousness," etc. Mrs. Dala Nowlin read from Mark 9th chapter through 11th verse. Prayer was offered by Supt. E. M. Payne. Singing by the Convention. The President then called for the reading of minutes of previous day. The Secretary then read the minutes and after proper correction stood approved. The following Committee on Place was appointed: Supt. P. W. Callaham, Mrs. J. E. Martin, Carrie Earley, Dea. Burl Anderson, Rev. David Pannill, Rev. A. J. Thompson, Supt. W. H. Arnold.

Then a motion prevailed to appoint Supt. P. W. Callaham in place of Rev. C. A. Organ as Statistical Secretary for the Convention. Reading of letters was continued, after which the following visitors were introducea and also corresponding messengers. Visitors: Mrs. Sallie B. Wheaten, Mr. C. W. Johnson, Mrs. Louise Harris, Dea. W. M. McIvor, Dea. Arthur Dennis, Mrs. Nommie Burns, Rev. E. T. Brown, President of the Corner Stone Baptist Sunday School Convention, Supt. J. H. Martin, corersponding messenger from the Otter River Sunday School Union and Supt. D. W. Gibson, President of the Appomattox and Campbell Sunday School Union. These messengers brought greeting from their respective Conventions and also accompanied by $5.00 from each Union—$10.00 for the Va. Seminary and College. The chair then introduced Rev. E. T. Henderson who gave a most interesting lecture on the subject, "The Modern Sunday School." The address was very enlightening. We had an interesting selection, "The Ten Comments," given by Misses Fannie L. Turner and Estelia J. D. Douglas. The rendering was delivered with much earnestness and delight to the Convention.

Then the Treasurer reported as follows: I beg leave to offer the following report:

Paid out for minutes for 1928	40.00
Balance in hands of Treasurer for 1928	$12.15

Yours sincerely, J. H. MARTIN, Treasurer.

This report was received and turned over to the auditing committee.

Then the President introduced Miss Ruby Herndon, who substituted for her sister, Miss Lutie Herndon, and gave a paper, "The Building Up of the People of the Age." The paper was well rendered and showed the preparation necessary which makes Miss Ruby Herndon an efficient instructor of the young.

The President then introduced Mrs. W. A. Byrd who spoke in interest of the Training School at Rustburg. Mrs. Byrd was followed by C. H. Gibson and Mrs. Cornelia Earley who spoke relative to the Training School,

The Committee on Obituaries made the following report: We, your Committee on Obituaries, beg leave to offer the following report: Whereas, we find the Lord has called from our schools to their home above the following members: Bro. William Jackson of Silver Grove, Bro. P. W. Gibson from Pilot Sunday School, Bro. Marcelus Jones of Mt. Plain Sunday School, Bro. Lewis Anderson of Holcomb Rock Sunday School. Bros. Lewis and James Anderson of Chappelville Sunday School. We mourn the loss of the workers in our schools but we feel that all things our Heavenly Father does are right and we must humbly bow to the will of Him who doeth all after the counsel of His own will. We therefore recommend to give 15 minutes of the time of this Convention to memoralize the lives of these members. Respectfully submitted, Warner Lewis, Alice Murrell, Isabell Dixon, Annie Gibson, Committee. The report was adopted and the following brethren spoke in honor of the following members: Rev. J. L. McDaniel spoke in honor of Bro. William Jackson; Rev. Thos. W. Tweedy spoke in honor of Bro. P. W. Gibson; Bro. W. J. Martin spoke in honor of Bro. Marcelus Turner; Bro. Howard Austin and Bro. Clarence Morris spoke in honor of Bro. Louis Anderson; Bro. Burl Anderson spoke in honor of Brethren Louis James Anderson and William Roscoe Anderson; Rev. J. B. Shelton, D. D., spoke in honor of Bro. George Jackson. Singing by the Convention. Reading of letters was continued.

The time having arrived for preaching and Rev. Singleton being absent Rev. F. Shelton, alternate, entered the stand accompanied by Revs. E. T.

Brown and Tyree. Rev. Brown sang No. 492, "Amazing Grace how Sweet the Sound," etc. The chair then introduced Rev. Shelton who arose and announced as a subject, "The Attributes of God," and selected as a text Isaiah 46:8-9, "Remember this and show yourselves men, bring again to mind, oh ye transgressors. Remember the former things of old, for I am God and there is none else, I am God and there is none like me." Rev. Shelton preached an interesting sermon on the Attributes of God. The President then appointed Supt. C. R. Powell and Supt. J. H. Martin to lift a collection and after listening to a beautiful chorus by the Twilight Singers, a collection of $4.62 was taken and benediction was given by Rev. W. M. Coleman.

Second Day, Afternoon Session, 3:10 P. M.

The President in the chair; Rev. F. Byrd and Mrs. Isabell Dixon in the stand Sister Dixon sang, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus." Prayer was offered by Bro. D. F. Payne.

The Committee on Temperance reported as follows. We, your Committee on Temperance beg leave to offer the following report: Whereas intemperance causes most trouble in our homes and churches and the public at large and, whereas, the use of strong drink as a beverage makes a person unfit for Christian duty; therefore, be it resolved that the schools composing this Convention take a firm stand for temperance. Respectfully submitted, Limas Harvey, chairman, Ed. Coles, F. G. Waller, Cornelia Earley, E. K. Burton, committee. The report was spoken to by Rev. Byrd, Mrs. Bettie Elliott, Supt. D. W. Gibson and then adopted.

The Committee on Auditing the Treasure reported as follows: We, your Committee on Auditing the Treasure, find after careful examination the report made by the Treasurer to be correct.

The Committee on Sunday Schools reported as follows: We, your Committee on Sunday Schools, beg to submit the following report: We urge every deacon to attend the Sunday School more often; also the children. We should inaugurate some plan that will more directly reach the children and hold them in Sunday School longer and increase their attendance. We insist on all concerned in every community to urge all pupils to attend the Sunday School which will greatly increase their efficiency for church service. Respectfully, your committee, Mrs. E. Brown, M. Coles, Mrs. S. A. Rucker, Miss G. C. Martin, W. H. Burton, B. Terry and M. A. Monroe. The report was spoken to by Supt. E. M. Payne and D. W. Gibson and then adopted.

The Committee on President's address reported as follows: We, your Committee on the President's Address, beg to submit the following report: We recommend that the address be published in the minutes and further recommend that the recommendations relative to Sunday Schools be adopted and carried out as far as the schools are able. We further recommend the adoption of the third article and plans be discussed in this session how to effect the same. Respectfully your committee, T. M. McClendon, J. L. McDaniel, D. D., and E. M. Payne. This report adopted.

The President introduced Rev. W. T. Johnson who gave some encouraging remarks to the Convention, after which we listened to a solo by Miss M. A. Monroe, which revived the spirit of the Convention. Singing by the Convention.

The Committee on Place reported as follows: We, your Committee on Place, beg leave to offer the following report: After carefully considering the applications from three schools asking for our next sitting of this Convention, we do hereby recommend its next session with the First Baptist Sunday School of Altavista, Va. Committee, P. W. Callaham, Corine Early, David Pannill, Burl Anderson, J. E. Martin, W. H. Arnold, A. J. Thompson. The report was received and recommendation adopted. We then had a selection by the Twilight Singers.

The Committee on Education reported as follows: We, your Committee on Education, beg to offer the following report: Realizing the educational aid among our people, we hereby recommend that each superintendent of each school of this Convention use his influence in having his school send up a liberal collection each year for our school at Lynchburg which we feel is giving our people the best training available in this section and is controlled by our own people. We recommend the action of last year's report on education that each school will lift a penny collection after regular sermon on education. Respectfully submitted, A. J. Thompson, J. B. Wade, A. W. Martin, B. D. Wheaton, Jammie Moorman, D. F. Payne, Thos. W. Tweedy. This report was received and spoken to by Rev. L. K. Jackson; then adopted.

Rev. Jackson selected as a text, Acts 26:1, "Agrippi said to Paul: Thou art permitted to speak for thyself." As usual Rev. Jackson gave a spiritual sermon on the work of education and especially the Seminary & College. The chair then appointed Rev. David Pannill and Supt. P. W. Callaham to lift a collection. They took up $16.04 and by motion this collection would be given to the Seminary & College. We then adjourned by benediction from Rev. J. L. McDaniel D. D.

Second Day, Evening Session, 8:15 P. M.

The President in the chair; Rev. David Pannill, Rev. J. B. Elliott and Rev. Chappel Murrell in the stand. Rev. Pannill anounced, "Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound," etc. Bro. Elliott read the 125th division of the Psalms. Prayer was offered by Rev. Chappel Murrell. Singing by the Convention. Selection by the Mt. Zion choir. Then the President introduced Dr. J. L. Peters, who in the absence of Dr. C. L. Summers opened the round table discussion. Dr. Peters remarks were very timely and helpful. Then after another selection by the Mt. Zion choir, the President introduced Dr. Williams from Atlanta, Ga., who gave an encouraging address. Singing by the Convention. The President appointed Rev. E. T. Brown and Rev. David Pannill to lift a collection after singing by the Convention. They lifted $12.60. Rev. J. B. Shelton, D. D., gave an interesting talk to the Convention. Then the President asked for a collection for Rev. Tyree. We took up $6.00.

MINUTES

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Otter River Sunday School Convention met in its Eighteenth Annual Session with the Mt. Zion Baptist Sunday School, Lynchburg, Va., July 26, 1929.

Mrs. L. V. Hogue presiding; Mrs. Jennie Moorman, Mrs. Cornelia Early and Mrs. M. L. Dabney in the stand for devotionals. Sang, "Holy, Holy, Holy," etc. Mrs. Cornelia Early read 100th Psalm. Prayer by Mrs. M. L. Dabney. Sang "Savior, More than Life to Me," etc.

The president proclaimed the house opened for business.

On motion the program for the day was read, received and adopted.

The following committees were appointed:

On Enrollment—Mrs. Julia White, Mrs. E. K. Burton and Mrs. Jane Russell.

New Bodies—Mrs. M. L. Dabney, Mrs. Susie Nelums and Mrs. A. O. Calloway.

Reading Letters—Mrs. Jennie Moorman, Mrs. Cornelia Early and Mrs. Laura Tanner.

On Finance—Dea. E. M. Payne, Miss G. C. Martin and Mrs. A. O.

Calloway.

On Permanent Organization—Mrs. R. J. Lee, Mrs. M. C. Brady, Mrs. Annie Gibson, Rev. A. J. Thompson, Mrs. S. A. Rucker, Mrs. Alice Murrell and Mrs. I. B. Dickson.

On Fees—Dea. J. H. Martin, Mr. Limas Harvey and Miss C. B. Pannell.

On Obituary—Mrs. Cornelia White, Mrs. Octava Morgan and Mrs. Mildred Farmer.

On Auditing the Treasure—Dea. W. J. Martin, Rev. M. E. Calloway and Mr. John M. Fore.

Next, calling the roll, the introduction of visitors and reading letters.

The Committee on New Bodies reported as follows: We, your committee on New Bodies, humbly submit the following report: We find one circle, namely the "Salt Creek," seeking admittance into this body. Respectfully submitted, Mrs. A. O. Calloway, Mrs. Susie Nelum, Mrs. Jane Russell.

The report of the committee was received and adopted.

Mrs. Rosa Dean, of Dearington, was introduced to the body. She made some very encouraging remarks and also brought in a circle.

A solo by Mrs. M. L. Dabney was very much enjoyed by all.

The committee on Permanent Organization reported as follows: We, your committee on Permanent Organization, beg to submit the following report: Since the organization seems perfectly satisfied with the present staff of officers, we therefore, recommend their continuance in their respective offices for the next twelve months. Respectfully submitted, Mrs. M. E. Brady, Mrs. Annie Gibson, Mrs. S. A. Rucker, Mrs. Alice Murrell, Mrs. I. B. Dickson, Rev. A. J. Thompson.

The report of the committee on Permanent Organization was received and adopted.

Time having arrived for the annual sermon, Rev. James McDaniel ascended the stand, accompanied by Rev. T. W. Tweedy, Rev. Allen Shelton, Rev. J. B. Shelton and Rev. Williams of Georgia. Singing by Rev. Tyree. Opened by singing, "He Rescued Me," lined by Rev. T. W. Tweedy. Rev. Allen Shelton read the 9th chapter of Matt., to the 16th verse. Prayer by Rev. J. B. Shelton. Song, "Angels Get My Mansion Ready," etc. The president introduced Rev. James McDaniel to preach the annual sermon. He preached a most wonderful sermon. Text, "When thou prayeth enter into thy closet." Subject, "Place of Power." He showed to us that there is great power in "Closet Workers," and that the world is gaining ground because we are not closet workers. He also said that the world and Christianity are too closely connected. His sermon was enjoyed by all who heard it. Prayer by Rev. Williams of Atlanta, Ga. Singing by the Convention, "A Little Talk with Jesus Makes it Right." The offering was taken by Mrs. Jane Russell and Dea. Burl Anderson, which amounted to $15.33.

Report of Agents—Mrs. E. K. Burton visited several churches, brought into the Auxiliary one new circle, six life members and five annual members with the amount of $7.25.

Mrs. M. L. Dabney brought one life member and nine annual members with the sum of $3.25.

Mrs. Jane Smith brought five annual members with the sum of $1.25. Mrs. Smith also brought an offering to the Auxiliary from Miss Henry A. Whitlow.

The reports of the agents were received and adopted.

The agents did splendid work. They brought many members into the Auxiliary, the names of whom you will find on another page of this book.

On motion sister R. C. Leftwich and sister Vinie Bradley were made Agents.

A recitation, "People Will Talk," by Miss Rosa Farmer. A solo by Rev. M. E. Calloway. A recitation, "Pessimistic View of Heaven," by Miss G. C. Martin. A solo by Miss Bradley. A paper, subject, "The Three C's," by Mrs. Nannie Fowlkes. These papers, solos and recitations were very timely, well prepared and enjoyable.

RESOLUTIONS—Whereas, the people of the Mt. Zion church have extended to us their heartiest hospitality in accommodating us to their homes, tables and other aicommodations: Be it Resolved, That it is the desire of this body to extend to them our most profound appreciation and prayerful consideration. We pray their continued prosperity and advancement along all lines, and may the Great Head of the church be with them forever. Yours, Thomas W. Tweedy.

The time having arrived to close, the Convention sang, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," etc.

Benediction by Rev. T. W. Tweedy.
